

THE WPBDF SCHOLARSHIP 2024-2025

Sponsored by the Western Pennsylvania Bleeding Disorders Foundation

Who is eligible for the WPBDF Scholarship?

Any person or immediate family member of a person with hemophilia, von Willebrand Disease, or other inherited bleeding disorder is eligible to apply for this scholarship. The person with the bleeding disorder must either be a member of the Foundation, living in one of the 26 counties served by the Foundation, or be a patient of the Hemophilia Center of Western PA. The candidate must provide proof of enrollment in an accredited college or vocational/technical center and must submit a completed application within the established deadline.

Scholarship Funds

One full award up to $3,000 per degree program or course of study will be granted. Partial awards may be granted. Individuals who have received a partial award (less than $3,000) from WPBDF in the past are welcome to reapply. The Foundation is delighted to be able to support our community in this way. We wish you the very best of luck as you pursue your education.

The Process

The 2024-2025 process will be as follows:

- Applications are being distributed by the Western Pennsylvania Bleeding Disorders Foundation.
- Applications must be received or postmarked by May 30, 2024.
- Criteria should include academic excellence (past or present), community service, and personal statements.
- Winner(s) will be announced at the WPBDF Annual Meeting on July 18, 2024.

Checklist for Application Submission

- Type your answers to the questions on a separate sheet(s) of paper and attach them to the application.
- Staple forms in the top left corner.
- Include your name in the top right corner of each page.

Please include with the completed application:

- Proof of enrollment in an accredited school or vocational/technical center.
- A copy of your current transcript, if applicable, should be included or sent separately to WPBDF. This does not need to be an official copy, but it MUST be received by the application deadline for your application to be considered.
